Presentation

Wednesday, November 2 at 7pm

Jewish Community Center of East Bay 1414 Walnut Street, Berkeley, CA

Hear from national cohousing author, architect and developer, Katie McCamant, and meet members of Wolf Creek Lodge, the new senior cohousing community in Grass Valley.

Learn how pro-active adults are creating their own cohousing neighborhoods that balance private homes with community living for healthier, happier and more sustainable lives and are therefore a great place to age.
