A Cohousing Community for Proactive Adults

Wolf Creek Lodge

How is adult cohousing a different way to live a healthier and more enjoyable life?

Slideshow Presentation

With national cohousing specialist Katie McCamant and members of Wolf Creek Lodge

Thursday, April 28th from 6:00-7:30 PM

Community Recreation Center, 8924 Donner Pass in Road Truckee, CA

Sign up at info@wolfcreeklodge.org and say Truckee in your email.

In this presentation and discussion you will hear about Wolf Creek Lodge, now being built in the beautiful foothill town of Grass Valley, California. You will learn why sustainable living is an integral part of cohousing and how it provides the perfect balance of independence and the enjoyment of community.

Join us to find out how cohousing is different from other retirement options!
